- We have a special speaker Mark Fleming from Xtreme car and Stars.
- Mona is still taking pictures of members with their cars.
- Gloria will be checking on our Christmas dinner as Cariuccios as they are moving from there current location because of the close of the Museum.
- Richard was telling us about a Car show in Sedona September 17th will get us more information on it.
- Kathy talked about the web site Fathom.com is running more play's and concerts that are in theaters across the valley, also on August 19th and 20th at the Henderson Pavillion the Broadway play Vignettes will perform at 8pm.
- Mimi stated we have 28 members as Bill and Kathy Childs have left the club. We have 2 birthdays this month.
- Mona up dated us on Tuacan play, will be making the motel reservations this week so all that want to go need to get in touch with her ASAP. Then Gloria will make all the ticket purchases so we can all sit together.

- Elise told us about this Friday is movie night out at Sun Set Station. Next Tuesday is dinner night out check the Web page for time and place.
- Elise and Gloria are the only ones going to Gilroy for the Garlic Festival the end of this month.
- Brian and Keisha will be doing August breakfast at 10:00am on the 13th at Omlet House on Boulder Highway and Lake Mead Pkyway.
- We still need people to talk about them selves next month. Gloria is going to try and get some one from NV power to come talk to us.
- Our guess speaker is involved with the racing circuit and is trying to get people and car clubs involved with each other. If we are interested he could set up some venues so we could go into the Pit area of races, and any other function we would like to do he could help set up and get us involved with other car clubs and Miata owners.
- Judy spoke about her self and she was an airline stewardess so traveled all over the world with Pan Am. She lived in places like Berlin, Monteral, New Hampshire. She was later a car sales person and that is where she got her first Miata.
- Gloria lived in Indiana, did some modeling and got her Beauty License, and had her own Salon. She had 2 boys and grew her own garden where she did her own canning. Moved to Las Vegas in 1995. She now has the Salon in her own home, and has written a book about Cancer and things to eat to help prevent cancer.
